Agenda Item No 4:

Approval of the Programme Project Reports (PPRs) for Open and Distance Learning Programmes under MCDOE.

Discussion:

Prof. (Dr.) K. P. Yadav – Vice-chancellor has presented this proposal for approval of the Programme Project Reports (PPRs) for various Open and Distance Learning (ODL) programmes to be offered under the aegis of the MATS Centre for Distance and Online Education (MCDOE).

It was informed that the PPRs had been meticulously developed in accordance with the University Grants Commission - Distance Education Bureau (UGC-DEB) Regulations, incorporating comprehensive details on the following aspects:

- Programme objectives and intended learning outcomes
- Curriculum framework and structure
- Instructional design and pedagogy
- Faculty and academic resource details
- Learner support services and academic delivery mechanisms, and Assessment and evaluation strategies.

The following programmes were proposed under the ODL mode:

Post Graduate
<ul> <li>Master of Science in Chemistry (MSc Chemistry)</li> <li>Master of Science in Mathematics (MSc Mathematics)</li> <li>Master of Library &amp; Information Science (MLib&amp;ISc)</li> <li>Master of Arts in English (MA English)</li> <li>Master of Commerce (MCom)</li> <li>Master of Social Work (MSW)</li> <li>Master of Business Administration (MBA)</li> <li>Master of Computer Application (MCA)</li> </ul>
(1)

The Council appreciated the thorough internal review and vetting process undertaken by the concerned academic and administrative units to ensure the quality, relevance, and regulatory compliance of each proposed programme. It was further noted that the PPRs are aligned with the National Education Policy (NEP-2020), emphasizing flexibility, employability, and access to quality education for distance learners.

Resolution:

After detailed deliberations and careful consideration of the presented PPRs, the Academic Council unanimously approved the proposal for the introduction of the aforementioned ODL programmes under the MCDOE. The Council appreciated the academic rigor, structural soundness, and regulatory compliance reflected in the PPRs, as well as their alignment with the objectives of the NEP-2020.

Agenda Item No 5:

Approval of the Study Learning Materials (SLMs) for Open and Distance Learning Programmes under MCDOE.

Discussion:

Prof. (Dr.) K. P. Yadav – Vice-chancellor has presented a comprehensive proposal for the approval of Study Learning Materials (SLMs) developed for various Open and Distance Learning (ODL) programmes under the aegis of the MATS Centre for Distance and Online Education (MCDOE).

In his presentation, Prof. Yadav emphasized that the development and deployment of high-quality SLMs is a cornerstone of effective ODL delivery, significantly influencing learner engagement, conceptual understanding, and academic achievement. The Academic Council was apprised that the SLMs have been developed strictly in accordance with the norms and standards prescribed by the University Grants Commission - Distance Education Bureau (UGC-DEB) Regulations.

The materials have been designed to be pedagogically robust, self-contained, and learner-centric, integrating print, digital, and multimedia elements where appropriate. These features are aimed at enhancing accessibility and independent learning. The following programmes were covered under the SLM development initiative:

Under Graduate	Post Graduate
<ol> <li>Bachelor of Arts (BA)</li> <li>Bachelor of Commerce (BCom)</li> <li>Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)</li> <li>Bachelor of Computer Application (BCA)</li> <li>Bachelor of Science in Biology (BSc Biology)</li> <li>Bachelor of Library &amp; Information Science (BLib&amp;ISc)</li> </ol>	10. Master of Arts in English (MA English) 11. Master of Commerce (MCom) 12. Master of Social Work (MSW)

The Council was informed that the development process of these materials involved a collaborative effort by subject matter experts, instructional designers, and academic editors. The academic rigor, structural coherence, and learner engagement potential were meticulously validated through internal quality audits and peer review mechanisms.

Furthermore, it was highlighted that the developed SLMs have been submitted to a designated Expert Committee for their detailed review, recommendation, and final approval of the content. This external validation aims to further ensure academic integrity accuracy, and adherence to regulatory standards.

Additionally, the Council noted with appreciation that systematic provisions have been made for content localization and translation into regional languages, ensuring inclusivity and wider reach. A periodic review mechanism has also been instituted to keep the content contextually relevant and updated in alignment with national curriculum frameworks and emerging academic trends.

Resolution:

The Academic Council unanimously approved the Study Learning Materials (SLMs) for the aforementioned ODL programmes. The Council also placed on record its deep appreciation for the academic and technical teams involved in this significant endeavour. The Council commended the quality, comprehensiveness, and learner-centric design of the SLMs and acknowledged the initiative as a progressive step towards enhancing the academic integrity and outreach of MATS University's Distance education offerings.

Agenda Item No 6:

Approval of the E-content and Video Materials for Online Education programmes under MCDOE.

Discussion:

Prof. (Dr.) K. P. Yadav – Vice-chancellor has presented the proposal for the approval of e-content and video materials developed for the Online Education Programmes offered under the MATS Centre for Distance and Online Education (MCDOE).

He emphasized that high-quality digital content is fundamental to the success of online education, as it directly contributes to learner engagement, academic effectiveness, and the flexibility required in a digital learning ecosystem.

It was informed that the development of e-content and video lectures had been undertaken in strict compliance with the University Grants Commission - Distance Education Bureau (UGC-DEB) Regulations, ensuring alignment with the prescribed course outcomes and programme objectives. The development process followed a rigorous academic and technical framework and involved close collaboration among:

- Subject Matter Experts (SMEs)
- Media Production Professionals
- Instructional Designers
- Technical Support Teams.

This collaborative approach ensured that the content was academically robust, visually engaging, and pedagogically sound. The programmes for which e-content and video lectures were developed are as follows:

ONLINE EDUCATION

- 1. Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com.) -
- 2. Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)
- 3. Bachelor of Computer Application (BCA)
- 4. Master of Business Administration (MBA)
- 5. Master of Computer Application (M

The key features of the e-content were highlighted, including:

- Modular structure with well-defined learning units
- Integration of multimedia (animations, infographics, etc.)
- Interactive elements for learner engagement
- Accessibility options such as subtitles and transcripts
- Compatibility with diverse learning devices and platforms.

The Council was also apprised that the content had undergone multiple layers of academic and technical quality checks, including pilot testing with student groups, to ensure effectiveness and learner satisfaction.

Resolution:

After extensive deliberations, the Academic Council appreciated the comprehensiveness, quality, and learner-centric design of the digital learning resources. The following suggestions were also noted:

- Periodic revision and updating of the video content
- Ensuring accessibility for learners with disabilities
- Incorporating a multilingual approach where feasible to increase inclusivity.

The development team assured the Council that robust systems are in place for regular content updates, integration of learner feedback, and full compliance with accessibility standards.

The Academic Council unanimously approved the proposal for the econtent and video materials developed for the Online Education Programmes under MCDOE. The Council acknowledged the efforts of all departments and teams involved, and the details presented were duly noted by the members.

Agenda Item No 7:

Discussion on preparation for UGC-12(B) inspection in the upcoming months.

Discussion:

Shri Gokulananda Panda – Registrar has presented this proposal about discussion on preparation for the upcoming UGC-12(B) inspection scheduled in the April-May months of 2025. The UGC-12(B) accreditation is a significant milestone for our institution, and ensuring compliance with the UGC guidelines is crucial for maintaining our status as a recognized higher education provider. The inspection will focus on a thorough evaluation of our infrastructure, academic quality, governance, and research initiatives, which will impact our ability to receive funding and recognition for further academic advancements.

A detailed review of the institution's documentation, including curriculum frameworks, faculty qualifications, financial statements, infrastructure reports, and academic outcomes, was initiated. It was agreed that all departments and administrative sections would cooperate to ensure the submission of accurate and up-to-date records. Special attention will be given to areas such as academic performance, research output, student support services, and adherence to JCC regulations.

Resolution:

The Academic Council unanimously acknowledged and resolves to establish a UGC-12(B) Coordination and Compilation committee as Core team, comprising senior administrative and academic members to oversee the entire process.

This committee will ensure all documents and processes align with UGC requirements, and any necessary improvements or modifications will be implemented ahead of the inspection. Additionally, a mock inspection will be conducted to identify areas that require further refinement before the official review.

Agenda Item No 8: Any other agenda with the permission of the chair.
