Field Work Practicum I:

In first semesters a generalist model is followed which emphasizes the core or common denominator of values, knowledge and intervention skills that underpins all social work practice.

Components:

- Orientation Programme
- Concurrent field work

Orientation Programme:

In the beginning of the course students come from a variety of educational streams of disciplines, therefore the first week after the admission is devoted to orientation. The Orientation Programme is aimed at providing appropriate direction to professional learning of social work. Special lectures of senior faculty members, lectures of persons from various governmental and non- governmental agencies and institutional visits are organized to prepare students for social work study and practice. Institutional visits provide students an exposure and orientation to ongoing services by different organizations and individuals in response to societal needs. Students also get acquainted with the structure, functioning and staffing pattern and activities of the organizations.

Concurrent Field Work:

The broad aim of concurrent field work is to provide opportunities for students to apply the knowledge learnt in the classroom situations and to plan, implement and evaluate these experiences while working with individuals, groups and communities with keeping in mind the agency's philosophy, policy and goals and use of guided supervision. During the concurrent field work, students are expected to understand the situation of the individual client and social systems in order to equip himself/herself for social case work intervention.

Tasks:

- Establish contact and develop rapport with the agency personnel and/or community people.
- Regular reporting to all concerned persons, perform the assigned tasks and work with agency personnel, volunteers and/or community people.
- Continuous self-assessment of field work experiences.

➤ Case study preparation and presentation

Learning Outcomes: Conceptual understanding of case work application and preparation of case studies, understanding of human behavior. Each student should get exposed to the practice of Social Case Work with the guidance of the supervisors and submit the record of each session.

MSW I Semester

MSW – 106

Agency Visit

The aim of study tour is to provide an exposure for the students to other Schools of Social Work and well-known organizations (common and specialization based) involved in the practice of social work in other states of India. The Place and the days shall be decided by the Head of the department in consultation with the field work directorate. The students are expected to observe the activities and pattern of functioning of those organizations in different socio-cultural settings. A detailed report of the study tour has to be submitted to the department immediately after the study tour.

Note: The field work agency and/or community of the students will remain the same for first and second consecutive semesters of a year.

Study Tour makes a report & submit.

Field Work Practicum MSW IV Semester: 405

Concurrent Field Work (based on specializations)

The broad aim of concurrent field work in the 4th semester is to provide opportunities for students to apply the knowledge learnt in the classroom situations and to plan, implement and evaluate these experiences while working with individuals, groups and communities. These will be in keeping with the placement agency's philosophy, policy and goals and use of guided supervision. During the concurrent field work, students are expected to fulfill requirements according to specialized skills acquired through class room learning of their specializations i.e. Medical and Psychiatric Social work and Community Development.

Objectives of specialized concurrent field work are based on specializations respectively. Students are expected to learn the application of social work methods, principles, approaches, skills, tools and techniques with respect to their specializations.

Learning Outcome:

Developing the ability to fulfill the objectives and perform assigned task in order to imbibe core competencies required for an efficient specialized social work practitioner.

Note: The field work agency and/or community of the students will remain the same for third and fourth consecutive semesters of a year.
